COURSE FEE REDUCTIONS

We appreciate that some potential participants may already own copies of some of one or more of the publications used as essential reference throughout the Shoshinge course. Therefore, we are pleased to offer the following enrolment fee reductions:

If you already own a copy of CWS v1&v2, deduct £30. If you already own a copy of The Song of True Shinjin, deduct £15. If you already own a copy of one of the Service books, deduct £5. If you already own a copy of both Service, deduct £10. books ... and so on.

You may make multiple deduction. For example: If you already own a copy of CWS v1&v2 and one of the Service books you may deduct £35 (30+5) from the course participation fee of £150, so you pay £115 ... and so on

Because the permutations of this offer are so numerous, we have included a form on the chomonhouse.org PAY POINT PAGE that will automatically calculate and display the total amount required.

NOTE: In order to complete the work on our two interconnected websites (chomonhouse.org and purelandnotes.com) and to add an 'Add to Cart' that links from both sites to our PAY POINT PAGE, it has become necessary disable this on-line payment facility until 1st December 2018. Likewise, the Shoshinge course reduction calculator will not be operative until then.
